ANACORTES – Spring is blooming for boaters to hop onboard the new Anacortes Boat & Yacht Show May 17-20 at the Port of Anacortes' Cap Sante Marina that is projected to have 100 exhibitors and nearly 250 new and brokerage boats on display.

For Yacht Club members admission to the show is free – a $10 value – by showing their membership card at the box office on Thursday, May 17 or Friday, May 18. Yacht Clubs are encouraged to promote it to their members. A link for the mini-poster to display at your club can be found at https://30un9k3c1fv13l69r71fyfpt-wpengine.netdna-ssl.com/wp-content/uploads/2018/04/ABAYS18\_Program\_Cvr\_SO.pdf.

The Northwest Marine Trade Association and Anacortes Chamber of Commerce have come together for this show set in one of region's most popular boating areas. Attendees can soak in sights of in-water and shore-side boats at the marina, a huge accessory tent and at nearby boatyards with free bus shuttle service.

Anacortes – conveniently located between Seattle and Vancouver B.C. – is a great weekend getaway with guest moorage available for yacht club members who want to come by boat.

Tickets cost $10 for adults; $15 for unlimited pass; youth 17-and-under are free; and 50-percent off for Veterans every day of show. E-tickets are on sale now and include a 12-month subscription to Sea Magazine and/or Boating World. For more details, go to <https://anacortesboatandyachtshow.com/>.
